Exclusively for CyberStars!

CyberScholar's superstar participants who qualify as CyberStars between April 1 and June 30, 2010 will be entered into special drawings for these great prizes!

To be recognized as a CyberStar, log on to CyberScholar.com and successfully pass a qualifying set of training modules. Every month you become a CyberStar earns you an entry into that month's drawing as well as the quarterly drawing. (See the Rewards>CyberStar page for details.)

The more you train, the more you increase your chances to win!
